

NATIONAL CONVENTION AND NATIONAL EVENTS ASSISTANCE FUND

Do you know?

Do you know that CUPE has a National Convention and National Events Assistance Fund that may help send one delegate from your local to our national convention?

Do you know that, if you qualify, CUPE National will reimburse travel cost, hotel accommodation, per diem, registration fee and lost wages for one delegate?

Do you think your local does not have the funds to send a delegate to the national convention?

Then take the time to read the enclosed National Convention and National Events Assistance Fund guidelines and criteria and, if you think you qualify, just complete the form!

Perhaps you are one step away from participating in an extraordinary experience in Toronto!

Once the application form has been completed, send it in with the required documentation prior to June 9TH and we will advise you as soon as possible whether or not you qualify.